THE CAMERA TELLS THE TALE OF JAPANESE DEFEAT

SAIPAN MEANT extermination for most Japs who fought there, and death by suicide for many civilians. These natives of Jap descent survived. A marine, pushing a baby carriage, escorts a little girl and grandmother to safety.

TWO BANANAS are the spoils of war this stoker on a British sub brought back from a cruise that sank 20 Jap ships.

HERE'S ONE REASON, gasoline, for the swift victory over the Japs on Luzon. Thousands of drums like these were rolled ashore to power the U.S. attack.

The Star Weekly, Toronto, March 17, 1945

SURF BATHING in mid-ocean is no fun. A Chicago coast guard gripping a cable and the chain rail ventures into this maelstrom to clear away a fender that has broken loose on an oil tanker's deck in the midst of one of the Pacific's gales.

PLANE CARRIERS leading the way, a section of the U.S. fleet that includes two battleships nears Japan.

IT'S WASH DAY in the jungle, and the washing machine is the ingenious invention of some U.S. soldier.

HOMeward BOUND from a Pacific combat zone, these U.S. casualties seem to forget their wounds as they listen to this San Francisco coast guard musician squeeze out for them some of the hottest and latest Tin Pan Alley jive on his accordion.

BY TWO GANGWAYS like store escalators troops hurry ashore to cut off a Jap suicide squad on Bataan.

NOT BOTHERING to remove uniforms, Australian engineers indulge in a bit of horseplay in New Guinea.

LIVING RURALLY MILE FROM TORONTO SKYSCRAPERS

OVER THE MILE or so of ice from the bay front to Toronto Island many of the winter residents of Toronto's famous island cross daily to work downtown. Though their homes on the sand dune that separates the bay from Lake Ontario are almost in the shadow of skyscrapers, they've many of the advantages of a village.

TORONTO'S HIGHEST buildings, just over the bay, are seen from a fishing hole in one of the many lagoons which make the island a miniature Venice in summer.

THE ISLAND is really a number of islands. Here's the fire department on Centre. It takes only a few minutes to reach any point along the miles of cement "boardwalk."

A YOUNG Islander, baby Sue Adam, whose dad's a flier, gets a bath by the stove. Houses lack furnaces.

THERE'S A FERRY all winter by an ice-breaking tug which runs from early morning to late at night.

THAT SIGN means what it says. Customers keep track of purchases, pay the owner when they see him.

Taxi Fleets PROVE IT'S A GREAT SYNTHETIC TIRE

Because taxis are an essential form of transportation—and also because they form a ready-made, "mileage-in-a-hurry" test fleet—they were among the first to receive the new Synthetic Rubber Tires. Naturally, tire-wise taxi owners tried all kinds.

Now, with more than a year's driving experience behind them, their verdict is in. These men who judge tires on their performance, prefer Goodyears.

Many enthusiastically praise the new 'synthetic' Goodyears as at least the equal of those made from natural rubber.

When you are eligible for new tires, get Goodyears . . . and make sure that you, too, get the extra advantages of Goodyear research and experience.

GOODYEAR

THE GREATEST NAME IN RUBBER

TORONTO ISLAND'S human polar bear, J. W. Barnes, takes his daily dip in the lee of the masses of ice on the long breakwater. He prefers winter to summer for bathing in Lake Ontario. The contrast between air and water is greater in winter. It is 15 above as he bathes, but the water is 17 degrees warmer, or 32 above zero.

ISLAND RESIDENTS, thanks to the Toronto life-savers, aren't cut off from hospitals. Patrol officers come from the city to get emergency cases to an ambulance.

THE NAME Durnan, like the name Hanlan, is closely connected with the island's history. Here's the oldest inhabitant, A. V. Durnan, born there 75 years ago.

THAT LIGHTHOUSE, built on the island's Gibraltar point 136 years ago, at what then was the edge of the water saw many wrecks in the old sailing days when it was not unusual for a former to build a schooner and sail his own wheat across the lake to U.S. ports. The first lighthouse tender was a Durnan. The island, of course, needed snow plows after the big blizzard.

SOVIET GIRLS DECORATED FOR BRAVERY UNDER FIRE

THEY'RE NOT TWINS but their careers are similar. They are both former students of the Moscow State Theatrical School, both senior sergeants and both have been awarded the same military medal for the bravery they showed when under fire.

SAPPER Scout Sima Dneprovskaya captured a German blackhouse and twice received "For Valor" medals.

SNIPER Roza Shanina of Archangel has received the Order of Glory for having shot down 54 Nazi enemies.

NURSE INSTRUCTOR Anastasia Sukhovorova received the Order of the Red Banner for heroism in carrying 41 wounded men from the front lines of battle.

SCOUTS have to go into positions of great danger in advance of troops and here, with binoculars raised, is one of many Russian women expert in reconnaissance.

GIRLS ON A RABBIT HUNT

INGENIOUSLY, Audrey Card sets a snowshoe on end to provide a firm rest while she blazes away at a rabbit. Some have been known to hit up 40 miles an hour.

BORROWING their brothers' .22's, the girls of the Norwich high school rifle team went looking for some of the big jackrabbits for which the area is famous. They have with them an expert beagle and one of the sharpshooters sets Queenie's nose to a decidedly hot trail. The dog led them right and two of the girls are seen bringing home the bacon, or rather the rabbits.

THE GIRLS have beaten one of the school's two boys' teams. Instructor J. D. Thomson deserves credit. He's principal, too, and here coaches daughter, Jean.

A smart girl impresses her family
In the first dress she made with Singer Dressmaking Lessons

MY family's hard to impress—but I did it!

"That's the windup of my story, though. Here's the background:

"I'm eighteen. Have a part-time job. Am almost engaged to a boy from my town, who's overseas.

"I don't have much money for clothes—and it doesn't go far, these days. Or at least, it didn't—till I found out about my Singer Sewing Center's wonderful Dress-making Lessons!

"Did I learn fast when the Singer experts took me in hand! They helped me pick a pattern and material. (Just what I wanted!) Showed me how to adjust the pattern to fit me. Guided me through the cutting and fitting and putting together—and taught me plenty of tricks as I went along!

"So here I am—with this dream of a dress, and ideas for lots of others. What's more, I can afford 'em—it's breath-taking, what you save on even one outfit!

"And just between us, besides all the fun and satisfaction I'm having now with my sewing—I'll be a much better wife, when the time comes!"

"Here's What the Lessons Cost! Only $1.50 for a two-hour lesson. $10 for an 8-lesson course! (I saved almost that much on this first dress!) Special rates for lessons for girls 12 to 16. Singer also gives lessons in Make-Over and Alterations, and Home Decorations."

"I Found This Peasant Braid at Singer! Just one of the fascinating things they have at every Singer Sewing Center's Notion Counter! (Best Notion Counter in town, I think!)"

"Singer Made my Belt for me! What a pleasure—to have Singer do fussy finish-up jobs. Like covering buckles and buttons, making buttonholes; picotting and hem-stitching!"

"I asked about Singer Sewing Machines. Just in case! Right now, some new Singers are available. (Of course, you may have to wait your turn.) Also smooth-running reconditioned Singers. And Singers to run—by the month at home; by the hour at Singer Centers. (Incidentally, I steered the Singer man to our house to tune up mother's sewing machine!)"

LIKE DUCKS TO WATER, the Canadians take to Holland's flooded conditions with amphibious vehicles. On sea-going caterpillar treads they sail past farmhouses.

TREADED vehicles seem to go better on the canals than in the Holland mud. It is under conditions like this the Canadians have staged their advance into Germany. Evidently shovels are as necessary as machine-guns.

IN OPEN AIR style this trio breakfast in Germany. They hail from Toronto, Winnipeg, North Vancouver.

IN KLEVE, taken by Canadians, one of the spoils was this excellent likeness of Hitler in the days when he wasn't so worried as he is today. The soldiers think it a good joke but would rather have had the original fall into their clutches.

IN 1665 The Great Mogul diamond MADE HISTORY

Nearly 300 years ago the famous French traveller and connoisseur of jewels, Jean Baptiste Tavernier, made one of the greatest "finds" in diamond history. Journeying to India in 1665, he visited the Mogul Emperor in the newly-built Taj Mahal. There he was shown a great diamond of superb beauty, which he named the "Great Mogul" in honour of Shah Jehan, who also owned the famous "Kohinoor" and "Shah."

Today, all trace of the Great Mogul Diamond has disappeared. All that is known of it is contained in Tavernier's ancient description and his sketches. He described its form "as of an egg cut through the middle"—its weight as slightly over 279 carats—and estimated its value at more than $4,000,000. In the drawing below, the Great Mogul Diamond is shown a little larger than actual size.

THE GERMANS have revived many tortures used in Europe centuries ago. This neck and wrist pillory is one of many such instruments in the Ontario Museum.

STEEL COLLARS like this with spikes inside kept victims of 16th century torturers from turning their heads. This neck torture tool was invented in Germany.

IN SHAKESPEARE'S day it was legal to silence a too-talkative woman with this contraption, a gag for the garrulous which was known as a scold's bridle.

What! You want me to stop eating Stew?

Listen . . . I won't have you picking on my pet dish.
Why, I'd simply DIE without stew!

Now don't get us wrong! Stew is yummy—and nourishing. So tender it fairly melts in your mouth. But that's just it. Stew's soft-cooked, like so many foods you eat.

W-e-l-l, what's wrong with soft foods?

Oh, nothing. Except that they cheat you on chewing. And gums need work to keep strong and healthy.

You mean . . . I should exercise my gums?

You bet you should. Otherwise, "pink tooth brush" may warn you of flabby, neglected gums. So better start massaging with Ipana Tooth Paste now. That's common-sense care for your gums—and your smile.

Gum massage—for my SMILE?

Yes, Ma'am. You see, your smile is only as bright as your teeth. And sound, sparkling teeth depend so much on healthy gums. So put Ipana and massage to work and help keep gums firmer, healthier.

What's "Pink Tooth Brush" all about?

That, dear lady, is for your dentist to decide. So, if your tooth brush shows "pink," heed its warning. Make for your dentist's—but fast.

He may tell you your gums have become sensitive—robbed of vigorous work by modern, soft, creamy foods. He may very likely suggest "the helpful stimulation of Ipana and massage," as dentists so often do.

"Ipana Tooth Paste not only cleans teeth but, with massage, does a real job of helping gums, too. From now on, each time you brush your teeth, massage a little extra Ipana onto your gums."

"The refreshing 'tang' when I massage my gums tells me that circulation is increasing within the gum tissues, helping gums to healthier soundness—and my teeth are more sparkling already!"

Wake up lazy gums

Next! Movies that "live and breathe"... the work of men who think of tomorrow

3-Dimensional Movies, they're called—so realistic that the characters seem to step from the screen and pass beside you. Planes roar out of the sky and into the very theatre. Flowers in a garden seem to spill their petals right into your lap. Every screen play is a vast and enthralling spectacle, so true to life you feel you are one of the actors! That's the movie of the future, being perfected now by MEN WHO THINK OF TOMORROW!

No continent in the world is more fortunate in the tremendous improvements in everyday living which await it. That is because we are blessed with MEN WHO THINK OF TOMORROW!

• How important it is, therefore, that we make firmer our resolves and increase our daily efforts to bring that Tomorrow to pass. Remember, an enemy stands between us and Tomorrow. He is staking his all on keeping it from us. Can we do less than this to defeat his purpose?

• Let us create Victory! Let us wrest it from the very soil we till, the very tools we use in our factories, the very dollars we earn! Keep up production rates, yes, exceed them. Buy more and more Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates. Do anything and everything to help win this war.

• Let's all be MEN WHO THINK OF TOMORROW!

HAPPY GIRLS AND HAPPY JACK

HOME defence forces in England relax these days with Germany close to final defeat, and these Territorial service girls, in a merry mood, make merry over foot inspection after a route march. The corporal chiropodist checking their corns and callouses, is no doubt none too anxious for the war to end and deprive him of a pleasant job. LOWER LEFT, is an ingenious idea developed by a camouflage expert in the Home Guards. If they had ever had to fight a German invading force from hedge to hedge, the enemy would have found it hard to spot snipers in a protective covering like this made out of old sacking.

HAPPY JACK is what they call him, and at 69 years of age in his second world war he is still able to smile. He got into this one by the subterfuge of knocking 11 years off his age. His beard was once red. He was selected in World War I as the typical Australian, though born in London. He is in a camp in Northern Victoria.

HAS THE FLAVOUR-GUARD FILTER

THIS SING-SONG on board the Canadian corvette Leaside is being led by Chief Shipwright, Tony Stetcheson, Fort William, guitarist in the "Meet the Navy" show.

LACKING gasoline, an English grocer has turned his car into a delivery truck and makes use of horse power.

OUTSIDE Buckingham Palace the little girl is attracted by the bright yellow sock on the injured foot of the captain who has received the M.C. in an investiture.

ANTICIPATING events, this U.S. outfit in a captured German town hang out a welcome sign for Russians.

1. I've taken on the job as neighborhood leader for the government's Block Plan. All the women in my block do their war work in a group. We set up salvage drives, get blood donors, and do dozens of other necessary war jobs.

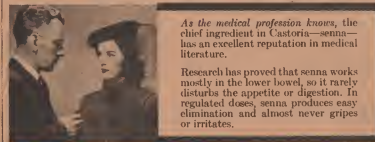

2. Keeps me pretty busy, but luckily I know most of my neighbors. The other day, though, I arrived at my friend Marie's as she and her mother were arguing about Marie's baby.

3. "What's the trouble?" I asked. "Mother says I'm spoiling my baby," she sighed, "having so many special things for him." "Yes," declared her mother, "you even have a special laxative!"

4. "Naturally," I said. "A child's system needs special care. My nurse sister always gives her child Castoria, made especially for children—it's gentle and effective."

5. Marie went ahead and gave her baby Castoria. The baby cooed over it... and Marie's mother said, "On thinking it over, I can see you and Marie are right... 100%!"

As the medical profession knows, the chief ingredient in Castoria—senna—has an excellent reputation in medical literature.

Research has proved that senna works mostly in the lower bowel, so it rarely disturbs the appetite or digestion. In regulated doses, senna produces easy elimination and almost never gripes or irritates.

FLORIDA BEAUTY SCHOOL TRAINS GLAMOUR GIRLS

SEVEN of the prettiest girls in the beauty school at Florida's Cypress Gardens sat in a row for this picture. They are splashing just to pretend that there are barracudas around. There are, of course, none of those sea tigers in the neighborhood, but the girls do attract wolves. As is evident, for sea tobogganning they don't need to bundle up so warmly as for the snow variety. The girl zipping through the water at 40 miles per hour is Barbara Chambliss demonstrating her ability to cling to an aquaplane at a sharp angle like a fly to a wall. ABOVE, on the right, one of the most daring of the athletic beauties in Cypress Gardens keeps her stance on the ski-like jitter board, new water sport.

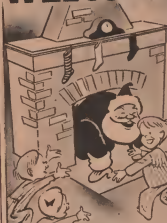

THE ART of graceful walking is acquired by practice with blocks of wood. The girls, of course, have no chips on their shoulders. The school's grads are guaranteed to have sweet dispositions plus physical grace.

STARS RISK THEIR NECKS TO WIN SCREEN SUCCESS

"HELP!" CRIES Republic's Kay Aldridge, and what girl wouldn't, with that log threatening to crush her? Clayton Moore is Johnny on the spot and rushes in to lift up the enormous (papier mache) telephone pole.

KAY GOES from one hair-breadth escape to another. She looks frightened, for all those daggers, or bayonets, coming down on her are more dangerous than a stump but it's her job to run risks.

JOAN CARROLL, M-G-M's 12-year-old, is discovering that you have to grin and bear a lot if you want to climb the ladder of screen success. She wishes that the bucket of chill water weren't quite so ice cold.

HERE'S screen realism at its height and anyone who imagines the stars don't risk their skin and neck to give audiences a thrill is wrong. These flames are real but so, fortunately, are the asbestos suits and masks with which the intrepid screen stars go through the blazing inferno.
